Dear Bob:

As I conclude my stewardship of the Intelligence Community, I want to express my sincere appreciation to you for the timely and capable support you have given to me.

Your diligence and perseverance, often under trying circumstances, have been a source of great satisfaction and have aided me substantially in accomplishing many of the difficult tasks confronting us. Your comments and advice have always been on the mark and extremely useful, and I have valued your assistance.

With best wishes for smooth sailing in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
